

Events at Marshall Library

March 2019

Tues. 5th: Paper Crafting Club 5-7pm. Make greeting cards and more with us! We supply tools and techniques. Free.

March 11th-16th: Try Virtual Reality Gaming!

We'll have this amazing system set up in the library for anyone to try. (First come, first served).

Tues. 12th 6-8pm: Stop the Bleed Class Uncontrolled bleeding is the number one cause of preventable death from trauma. YOU could save a life with this safe, easy, free training provided by the Marshall Area EMS. Please RSVP to the library by calling 608-655-3123 or emailing staff@marlib.org.

Sat. 16th, 1-3pm: Paint Party! We supply all materials and walk you through painting a beautiful work of art. Adults only. Limited to 15 spots. No fee. We will seat Marshall area residents first. You MUST pre-register! Registration opens on February 18th; on or after this date, please call us at 608-655-3123 to register.

Tues. 19th, 6-8pm: Book Club Teens and adults are welcome to join us for great discussions and snacks! We will be discussing The Boy at the Keyhole by Stephen Giles.

Sat. 23rd, 1-2pm: CBD Oil for Your Health Free informational presentation by Stephanie Hahn from Apple Wellness. Cannabidiol (CBD) oil has become the hot new product in states that have legalized medical marijuana. Learn about this non-intoxicating substance. Marshall Community Library makes no claims about the efficacy of CBD oil and neither condones or condemns its use.

Tues. 26th, 6-7pm: Fun with Robots & Coding

Are your kids bored during Spring Break? Bring them down to the library for a fun evening with robots. Robots can bulldoze, shoot hoops, play hot potato, change colors, navigate obstacles, and more-- YOU tell them what to do! Best for ages 6+. No charge. Part of our Spring Break Brain Building.

Thurs. 28th, 7-8pm: Folk Singer Dan Robinson presents "Feel the Beat," a hands-on program where kids get to use Dan's instruments to help create inspiring music and fun singalong songs. All ages welcome! No charge. Part of our Spring Break Brain Building.
